

2009 Passion Award Winners

Ladies Jewelry

1st Place

Lynne & Eddie Agha

'Spirit of Jade:' In Sterling Silver with Green Jadite Wings, Purple Jade Face, Diamond hair, 24K YG trim 108mm x 76mm (4.25"Hx3"W).

2nd Place

Phill Mason

'Vortex': a bangle which is a rolling annulus, similar to a smoke ring in action. Fabricated from Sterling Silver 18k Yellow Gold Shot. 70mm ID, 102mm OD, 16mm deep.

Finalist

Leann Feldt

18kt three-tone slide set with one oval rutiled quartz with copper weighing 51.23cts, one square buff top lemon quartz, two .03ct round diamonds, and nine 2mm round blue sapphires. The sapphires are set in brushed white gold. The bezels and half of the bail are yellow gold. On the open side of the large oval bezel are rose gold wires all around.

Finalist

Phill Mason

"Muscovite Membrane": Brooch. A geometric annulus framing a sheet of muscovite mica, through which is riveted an 18k gold boss into which is set a spinel crystal. Sterling Silver, Titanium, 18k Gold, Muscovite Mica, Spinel. 70mm x 70mm x 10mm.

Finalist

Thomas F. Castor

'Moth Cuff' hand made, 18K Yellow Gold, Sterling Silver with Black Rhodium, set with Australian Prehnite, Amethyst, Ruby and Natural Cognac Diamonds, oval domed cuff, 7 cm wide.